DISTRICT ROTARY MEETING THIS WEEK

The Second Annual Assembly of District 158 of Rotary International was held this week on the Peninsula with the Monterey Rotary Club as host. Participating also were the Rotary Clubs of Carmel and Pacific Grove, Castroville, King City, Salinas and Soledad.

On Wednesday a luncheon with over 500 Rotarians, wives and guests was held at the Navy Line School. An amusing skit satirizing the nomination and election of District Governor Warren Wilkinson was put on by members of the Monterey Club assisted by several Naval Officers. The main speaker was Dr. Tully Knoles, of Stockton, who spoke on accomplishments of Rotary and stressed the future possibilities of a more adequate club service.

Thursday further assemblies were held, and the meeting winds up today.

PUBLIC TO CHOOSE INTERNATIONAL FILMS AT CARMEL THEATER

The Carmel Theater has announced a new policy for running international films. In a postcard to Carmel residents this week, the theater management reported that a list of available films, the "finest on today's foreign and international markets," will be posted in the theater for selection in accordance with the wishes of patrons.

NOTED FINANCIAL ADVISOR TO SPEAK IN CARMEL

Cyrus Johnson, resident manager of Davies & Mejia, members of the N.Y. Stock Exchange, announces that Karl D. Pettit, financial adviser to some of the country's biggest investment trusts, will speak here today (Friday) at 2:30 p.m. The public is invited to hear Mr. Pettit at the office of Davies & Mejia on Sixth between Dolores & Lincoln, Carmel.

CARMEL ELEMENTARY SCHOOL REGISTRATIONS

Registration of any new kindergarten and first grade pupils of Carmel Woods School and Sunset School, not previously enrolled or registered, will take place Monday and Tuesday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., it was announced today.

Parents are requested to furnish their children's birth certificates.

"ALL MY SONS" OPENS TONIGHT

Tonight and tomorrow "All My Sons," Arthur Miller's powerful drama of postwar readjustment, will occupy the stage of Sunset Auditorium in Carmel. With this production the Golden Bough Players, the peninsula's oldest acting group, will once more present to this region an outstanding contemporary play not usually performed outside of metropolitan areas.

CARMELITE SHOOTS 100 STRAIGHT SKEETS SECOND TIME OUT

Young Don Weber, son of the Leo C. Webers, of Carmel Valley, on the very day he enlisted in the Army Air Force, decided to do something new, something he hadn't got around to before. He and a friend went up to the new Pebble Beach Gun Club to see some skeet shooting. They talked with Manager Capt. William M. Donnelly, Jr., himself an air force veteran, and watched various squads make the rounds of the skeet stations. Since young Weber had done some quail shooting in the Carmel Valley, he thought he'd like to try his luck at another kind of "bird" so borrowed a gun from Donnelly, bought some shells and joined a squad.

His very first round he knocked down 22 birds out of 25, and the next round he went 25 straight. That was enough for the first day. Last week he was back when the Club opened to see if he could

SPREADING the NEWS...

By Howard Statham

A CONVERSATION that Gertrude Stein might have enjoyed took place in Carmel recently, and for those of you who are in the mood for some more-or-less phonetic spelling, here it is--with the suggestion that reading it aloud may help a little.

The persons involved were two gentlemen, one English and one Japanese, and the topic of conversation was horticulture. Things were running along smoothly until the Japanese gentleman asked a question about something he referred to as a "loze."

"A reh-oze?" asked the Englishman, in a broad British accent.

"A loze," stated the Japanese.

"A reh-oze?" the Englishman asked again.

"A loze," repeated the other.

"Eaoh--er, yes--a reh-oze..."

Or, a reh-oze is a loze is a rose. Neither of them brought up the subject of pigeons on the glass. Too bad.

Valleyites Battling Over P.O. Name Again

Once again Carmel Valley residents have taken up the fight over the name of their Post Office. Meeting Tuesday night, members of the Carmel Valley Business and Professional Association drew up a petition in an effort to find out what Post Office designation the majority of valleyites want.

Now called the Robles del Rio Post Office, which takes the name one of the valley's tracts, the federal agency became the subject of heated argument last year when various groups made it known they wished it to be identified as a "Carmel Valley" institution.

Petitions were expected to be available this week in business establishments of the valley's business section.

In line with this, The SPECTATOR has received a copy of a letter which was sent to some official in Washington, D.C., by a Robles del Rio resident who is considerably exercised at the possibility of a change in the Post Office name. This newspaper publishes it in order to show just how much "heat" has been engendered in the fight over the name. The letter is reproduced in its entirety, with deletions made by its author, and no changes have been made either in the text or in the letter's style:

Hon. ( )
Department of ( )
Washington, D.C.

Dear ( )

Re the enclosed written for the Carmel Valley News by its owner Ed. Haber the Die-Hards are again trying to change the Robles Del Rio P.O. to Los Laureles a small unknown group of river houses which are not heard of beyond their own back yards. I say unknown for the Bell Tel. co. now regrets its error in naming the new Exchange Los Laureles. Last winter while in the East when I called on you I endeavored to phone my home L.L.9220 several times & one day the Calif. operators reported for 10 hours:- "No such exchange as Los Laureles not even a Calif. town of that Name!"

As I explained to you in Washington there are 4 Die-Hards who have their own Geese (or gooses?) to cook -

1- Haber - owns the C.V. News which he distributes Free for the Ad money & runs The Grapevine (village Booze Shop!) now has an interest in a small Movie in the Robles Lodge which name he wants to purge?

2- Brownell - an indifferent R. E. Agent who owns L. L. property which he is trying unsuccessfully to move as he spends most of his time fishing in Mexico.

3- Porter who promoted Robles Del Rio years ago & now owns the finest home in Robles which he is trying to sell BECAUSE now promotes Rancho Del Monte & is carrying hundreds of Valley acres near L.L. He thinks a change in the P.O. name from Robles (which P.O. he himself named to help sell his Robles lots) to L.L. will get him out of his commitment in view of the Korean War scare.

4- Sandy Griffen - who bought a lodge from Porter & called it L.L. Lodge started the last Committee (which you susessfully defeated) to change Robles to L.L. Fortunately he is out of the picture as he married a rich widow, leased the Lodge & moved to Santa Barbara to live The Life Of Riley! Easier than Sandy's?

If these Guys really start another fight I want you to come out here again & tell these socalled Valleyites - All foreigners except Porter - that Robles Del Rio is a Permanent P.O. & the real Heart of The Valley; the only settled section which boasts a Business Section.

Regards to all the Family,
Sincerely yours in the Bond,
(R. C. B.)

CARMEL VALLEY NOTES

Lots of summer fun in the Valley--many happenings of note. Motorists driving on Los Laureles Grade were surprised to see Lana Turner walking along the road with a basket on her head, and serenading her, the famous voice of Ezio Pinza. This was nothing out of the ordinary, of course, just movie shots for the picture, "Mr. Imperium."

Mrs. Pinza and family were guests at the Rancho Del Monte Country Club on Saturday. Members and guests kept hoping her husband would come along and sing "Some Enchanted Evening."

Martha Tilton and her radio show group were dinner guests at the Carousel last week and surprised the other diners by putting on a much-fun show for free.

Celebrities at Carmel Valley Inn included that snappy newspaper columnist, Herb Caen, and Mrs. Caen. Herb seemed to have a great time "doing" the valley. Also registered at the Carmel Valley Inn, well known dancer, Tony De Marco.

Another visitor of note, Millard Purdy, of the Wall Street Journal, and Mrs. Purdy. The Purdys have just completed a world tour and Mr. Purdy has written a series of articles on world conditions for the Journal.

Visiting in the valley next week will be movie star, Alan Ladd, and family. Also, Stanton Delaplane, who will write one of his charming "post cards" from here.

One of the most interesting fashion shows of the season will be held on September 2 at the Rancho Del Monte Country Club when Lynn Conlan presents a real Hawaiian fashion show with creations of her own design.

Lynn and Louie Conlan, who just recently returned to the valley from Honolulu, have a beautiful shop there which features Lynn's famous designs.

Parties at the Club last week included one given by Mrs. Charles

gadget of the week

When that old gadgeteer Archimedes invented the screw, or the water wheel, or whatever it was, it was a gadget.

So was the knife and fork once. We get a knife and fork that still is - a gadget, I mean. This combination would have brought on the perils of civilization sooner if that primitive gsdgeteer who dreamed up knives and forks had thought of it. Just the thing for picnics, campers, Boy Scouts and bachelors. Say you just hooked a fish or stabbed a deer. With this gadget you clean, scale, skin and eat 'em.

Photographer George Smith, of Carmel Valley, sent in this picture of the popular Jack Sherry, for the past five years master of the bar at The Robles Del Rio Lodge. FIRST THEATER PRODUCTION OPENS

"The Red Kiss Girls" opened last night at California's First Theatre, Monterey, to a large and delighted audience. A review of the production will be in The SPECTATOR next week.

Rhea Diveley, director, from all accounts, has added another laurel to the accolades which have been bestowed upon her since the producers, Dene Denny and Hazel Watrous, engaged her to direct at the First Theatre.

"The Red Kiss Girls" runs through the weekend, and on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights following.

BECOME GRAY LADIES

Three Carmel women became Gray Ladies, associated with the Carmel Red Cross Chapter, in a ceremony at the Fort Ord Hospital yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Gertrude Haaren, Mrs. Lucille Van Eeghen and Mrs. Louise Fritsche were presented with their hats and pins by Mrs. Isabelle Terhune.

NEPENTHE NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rogers came in for a surprise party Tuesday night at Nepenthe, down the coast, when a public announcement made it known that they were celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary. Above, Mr. Rogers, better known as "Rog," gets some help from his wife, "Tyke," as he prepares to cut the beautiful cake made by Louie Williams for the occasion.

Mr. Rogers is a famous chef in these parts and he now holds forth at Nepenthe. The Rogers were married in Los Angeles 25 years ago, coming to the peninsula in 1939, and they have been at the famous restaurant since it first opened. The party for them was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fasset, whose son, Griffis, celebrated his 14th birthday at the same time.

Among the guests at Nepenthe Tuesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Walter O'Keefe, Mrs. Hoyland Bettinger, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Leoni and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Crouch. POLAROID One-Minute Photo.

CATCH FISH IN SWIMMING AREA

Gold Lake, in the Feather River country near the Inn, is a mecca right now for Carmelites. Just returned after a quick visit are Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Morehouse, who had a wonderful time, but report one disastrous fishing experience. After spending one whole day out on the lake their catch was nothing to speak of. When they returned Karen Hicks greeted them with a 20 inch trout she had caught practically on shore in the section reserved for swimming.

Others from Carmel at Gold Lake are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schweninger, the Ernest Schweningers, the Fred Leidigs and Waldo Hicks and family.

CARMEL IN COSTUME

Carmel Kiwanis staged one of the finest costume dances ever held in these parts Saturday night at the Mission Ranch. It was a successful attempt to raise money for the annual Kiwanis Halloween Party for Carmel children. It may be a bit difficult to recognize these people, but starting at top left (preceding page) and working straight across and around the bottom, are seen Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tousey (in hula skirts), Mr. and Mrs. Pete Johnson, Wick Parsons and Marilyn Lyon (the Toni twins), Mr. and Mrs. John Port, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Staniford, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Giles, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hyler, Don Staniford and Avix Whitcomb (the Zulus), and Mrs. Joe Gledhill and Dr. C. Gilbert Campbell. Photos by CAMERA CRAFT.

Cancer Detection Plan Described

The trial run of a plan to cut in half the nation's death rate from cancer is described in a current magazine article, Byington Ford, president of the Monterey County Branch of the American Cancer Society, said today.

He said the American Cancer Society's campaign to make every doctor's office a cancer detection center would receive impetus from the article appearing in the September issue of the Woman's Home Companion, on news-stands today.

The article, "How to Prevent 100,000 cancer deaths a Year," describes the effectiveness of a program begun in Hillsdale County, Michigan, in 1948. Written by Clive Howard, it emphasizes the importance of individual physicians performing careful cancer examinations. The article states:

"If every one of the nation's 120,000 doctors would start looking with concentrated determination for early and curable cancer - and if every man and woman would cooperate by asking for periodic cancer examinations - we could cut the death rate in half. Not ten years from now, not even next year, but overnight.

These figures are borne out by the experiment in Hillsdale County, which has a population of about 30,000 persons and which is served by 15 practicing physicians. When Hillsdale--shocked by its high cancer death rate--decided to do something about it, the doctors called in four lecturers from the University of Michigan to give refresher courses in cancer detection.

Then, aided by community leaders, they saw to it that people learned that their doctors were crusading against cancer and that complete examinations were available at the same cost as any other physical examination.

"They had examined 1,721 patients and found 65 cases of cancer. One-third were in the early stage - precisely 33.8 per cent. Another 29.2 per cent, nearly three out of ten - were only moderately advanced.

Architect's drawing of Carmel's Church of the Wayfarer enlarged to extend to the corner of Seventh and Lincoln.

OKAY ENLARGEMENT PLANS FOR CHURCH OF WAYFARER

Enlargement of Carmel's Church of the Wayfarer came a step nearer reality Monday when the congregation accepted preliminary drawings by George L. Willcox, architect, and initiated a campaign to raise funds for the building.

The church was advised by a committee made up of Alton H. Walker, Larue Sorensen, James B. Pruitt, Edward K. Neroda, William D. Concolino, Carl Patnude (president of the Church League) and Dr. K. Fillmore Gray (minister).

Plans include enlargement of the present chapel on Lincoln Street, provision of space for children, youth and adults; a large dining and recreation room, youth center, more than a dozen class rooms, children's chapel and facilities for women's work.

The new work will be extended onto property purchased eight months ago at the corner of Seventh and Lincoln and the building (see cut) will be U-shaped to enclose a redesigned Biblical Garden.

The present building was constructed during 1939-40 under the direction of a committee headed by Alfred Matthews and Mrs. George Beardslee.

Los Angeles Judge Addresses Rotary

At the last luncheon of Carmel Rotarians members and visitors heard a talk by one of the club's most interesting guests to date, Judge Roger Alton Pfaff of the Los Angeles Municipal Court.

Speaking on the subject of traffic safety Judge Pfaff pointed out that during the two years he presided in the Los Angeles Traffic Safety Court the revenue in his court dropped in half, there was a 50 per cent decrease in traffic deaths and Los Angeles came from the worst traffic record to the best in the United States.

There are four principal factors causing deaths and accidents on our streets and highways: Speed, Alcohol, Discourtesy and Carelessness.

Nearly 20 per cent of all traffic deaths have liquor in connection with them. When drunk drivers are given jail sentences instead of fines, when traffic courts cease being used for revenue purposes, then and only then will we start solving the problem of this needless waste and slaughter on our streets and highways.

Judge Pfaff explained the Inferior Courts Reorganization Plan, which is to be on the ballot this November. He praised the untiring efforts of Chief Justice Phil S. Gibson in preparing and presenting this constitutional amendment to the people of California. He stated that it would eliminate needless duplication, effect a saving of expense to the taxpayer and result in a more efficient administration of justice.

In conclusion, Judge Pfaff blamed the home, the schools and the church for the widespread juvenile delinquency. He blamed the courts and probation officers for mollycoddling so-called juveniles and permitting lawbreakers to be continued on probation ad infinitum. He stated opinion was widespread among juveniles that there would be no punishment for the crime they committed. And statistics prove they are right.

"It is not the severity but the certainty of punishment that is the important factor in law enforcement," he commented.

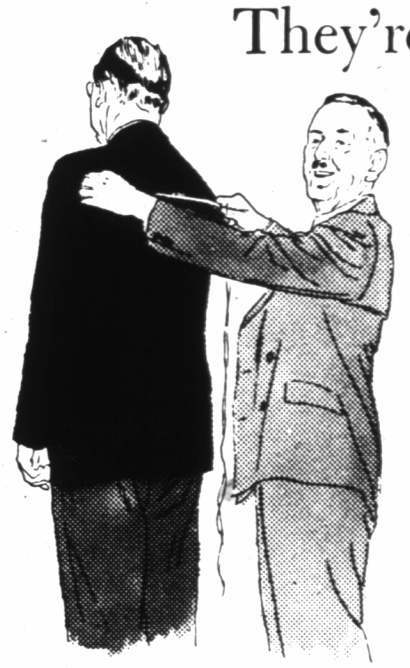
Meet Adam Lauber and friends...

They're putting $800,000,000 into new gas and electric facilities for you



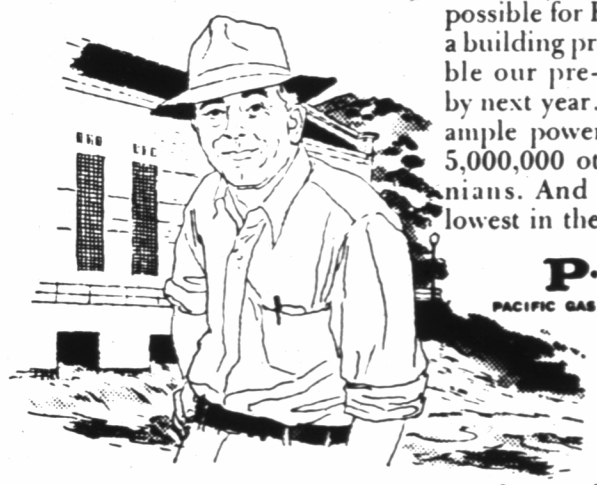
Adam Lauber, tailor in Redding, invests part of his savings in P. G. and E. stock and, along with 164,000 other stockholders, becomes an "owner" of P. G. and E. No individual, however, owns as much as 1/10th of 1% of P. G. and E. stock.

If you've been thinking about the cost of new P. G. and E. dams, power plants and transmission lines, then you'll realize how important these people really are. For it is their investment and that of thousands of others in P. G. and E. stocks and bonds that is financing the Company's vast post-war building program. It is the savings of these stock- and bondholders that provide the $800,000,000 necessary to produce more power and heat for fast-growing California.

From their investment come other benefits: A payroll of almost $69,000,000 flowed into 385 local communities last year, and provided 16,572 people with steady jobs at good pay. Schools, roads and cities also benefited from P. G. and E. taxes which, last year, were more than $40,000,000!

Finally, this investment makes it possible for P. G. and E. to carry out a building program which will double our pre-war electric capacity by next year...a program to assure ample power and gas to you and 5,000,000 other Northern Californians. And rates are among the lowest in the nation.

Myron E. Harman, Redwood City, Insurance. He is another "owner" of P. G. and E. More than 360 insurance companies invest in P. G. and E.—to the extent of almost a million and a half shares. They, as does Myron Harman, believe in the future of the West.



Joe Lagomarsino, Jackson . . . one of several thousand employees who are also "owners". He's worked for P. G. and E. since 1916, and today is foreman of our Electra Power Plant. He has been saving his money by buying P. G. and E. stock for 34 years.

Zenobia Hampton, Sonora, has been an "owner" of P. G. and E. for 25 years. Her investment not only helps support her, but helps develop the county in which she lives. P. G. and E. pays almost one-third of the total property taxes in Tuolumne County.

NAVAL SCHOOL P.I.O. LEAVES FOR PACIFIC

Lt. Cmdr. Robin M. Hartmann, USNR, Public Information Officer at the U.S. Naval School, General Line, Monterey, was detached from his present duty today (Saturday 12 August) and will report to the Western Pacific.

Hartmann, who has served in his present capacity at the Naval School for the past year, will be assigned duty in connection with public information at his new post.

Lt. Comdr. Hartmann is a native of Boston, Mass., and a graduate of Dartmouth College. During World War II he served aboard minesweepers, submarines and cruisers. After several years in radio, newspaper and public relations work following the war, he accepted orders to active duty in the Navy again in 1949.

During Lt. Comdr. Hartmann's new tour of duty, Mrs. Hartmann and their infant son, Kenneth, will remain at their Carmel home.

As yet, no Public Information Officer has been ordered to the Navy School as Lt. Comdr. Hartmann's relief.

FOREST HILL SCHOOL OPENS SEPTEMBER 6

On Wednesday, September 6, Forest Hill School will open its doors for the ninth year under the direction of Anne Douglas, who instructs boys and girls between the ages of two and one-half and eight.

A morning program is provided for the nursery and kindergarten children who go home at noon, while a lunch is served for the children who remain for the afternoon. This is followed by a nap-time for the younger children, but the primary pupils continue with music, handcrafts and playground.

ANOTHER COSTUME PARTY TO BE HELD AT THE BEACH CLUB

Another gala costume dinner dance will be held at the Beach Club, Pebble Beach, Saturday, August 26, with the musical, "Carousel," as the motif, and already circus costumes are being readied for the affair.

ANSWER TO THIS WEEK'S

WHO IS IT?

Mrs. Stephen Crouch, associate curator of the Carmel Art Association Galleries, is featured in this week's "Who Is It?" Ethelyn Crouch, known to her friends as "Cookie," took over co-curatorship of the local art galleries with her husband, Steve, in March of this year. An artist herself, while her husband is a well-known photographer here, she brings a background of civic and cultural activity to her position. Born at Lawton, Oklahoma, Mrs. Crouch met and married her husband in 1939 when he was stationed as an Army officer at Fort Sill. Two years of the couple's lives were spent along the Mexican border in various interesting towns. They first came to Monterey Peninsula when Mr. Crouch stopped off at Fort Ord on way to duty in the Philippines during the recent war. As Mrs. Crouch stopped for several months in Carmel, it is no wonder that they decided to live here following her husband's release (with the rank of major) from the Army in 1946. "Cookie" kept up her painting and indulged in amateur theatricals, while her husband turned his hobby, photography, into a business. Prior to their being invited to take over management of the art galleries, Mrs. Crouch had for several months managed Edward Kuster's Golden Bough Playhouse, which burned down last year. She had studied water colors under Paul Van Ryzin, of Duluth, and continues in her painting now, although she prefers to do oil and pastel portraiture. The Crouches have one son, Stevie, 10, who is a student at Carmel's Sunset School.

Tropical worsted outfit.

By VERA WINSTON

CRISP looking tropical worsted is the fabric used to fashion an attractive slacks suit, neatly cut on toreador lines. The color is a rich oyster white, and the bone buttons match. The well-cut slacks have pockets at either hip. Worn with the suit is a navy blue sweater blouse. This is a charming outfit for the figure that is slim and trim

A NEW SHOP is on Ocean Avenue, as everyone probably knows by this time, and it's called Gad gets Unlimited--which means that anything to be found on the shelves comes under the classification of gadget and that the stock is pretty varied. If you need a lint remover, for instance, that removes the lint from your blue serge suit but doesn't dump it on the floor to be kicked around and picked up again later--well, you can find it there. And if you're the sinful type who likes to smoke cigarettes and shoot craps, G. U. can equip you in a flash with a lighter that contains, in addition to flint and lighter fluid, a pair of dice that will be at hand at all times.

Gadgets Unlimited is the property of Dave Prince and Margaret Peasley, who also operate the David Prince Travel Agency in Carmel. Currently behind the counter of the new shop are Mrs. Prince and her 11-year old son Paul--the latter having a better knowledge of gadgets after a few days' close contact with them than you or I will acquire in a lifetime.

A 12-year-old frog living in a New York state town is said to jump whenever a storm is approaching. Must be able to hear the crack of thunder a long way off.

The recital by Maxim Schapiro, pianist, in the Sunset School Auditorium, Carmel, on Saturday evening of next week, August 26, will present a number of works not before heard in Carmel, as well as familiar pieces by Beethoven and Chopin. The impeccable taste, elegance and great virtuosity of Maxim Schapiro have been widely acclaimed throughout the United States, Europe and the Orient, where he has toured extensively. Wrote the New York Herald Tribune, "A pianist of elegance, taste and grand musical sweep, he is alive to contemporary musical issues at the same time that he maintains his allegiance to piano tradition," while the San Francisco Chronicle called him..."a brilliant exponent of contemporary music, second to none," and another critic declared, "... truly one of the greatest pianists of our time." Following his concerts with Eastern orchestras during the winter season, Mr. Schapiro flies to Europe in late February for a series of recitals in England and France. KALDOR-BATES Photo.
